1. The "Dienststelle für Aussenballistik (Office for Exterior Ballistics) at Köpenick is being moved to the U.S.S.R. This office has been mainly concerned with exterior ballistics of AA guns and V-weapons. The leading personnel are all well-known mathematicians and ballisticians who, during the war, were employed in the Military Technical Institute in the Fasanenstrasse. This institute was subordinate to the G.A.F. and had a test station at Bad Kahlungsborn on the Baltic.
2. Those to be moved in early November, together with their office equipment, etc., include Dr. Fehlberg, Dr. Burghardt (Dr. Bockhardt ?) and his wife, and Herr Zeiss. The travellers are being divided into separate groups for security reasons and are not allowed to communicate between groups. They have all had to agree that their mail would be censored and that they would not write anything about their work. Several constructors and draughtswomen were hauled from their beds at night and held under arrest until the time of departure. The destination of the personnel from this office is said to be Moscow.
